THE BENEDICTION & DRESDEN AMEN

“Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest.” (v31).

There are some things that only the people who live in the many desert places of the world will know. They are the people who really know the desert – when it blooms and blossoms as the roses do in our gardens. In the desert Moses found not only the burning bush but the mission for his life. The whole history of Israel changed after a journey into the desert by a sensitive man.

There are desert journeys and desert experiences that we do not seek. These are the times of daily challenge when the things we hope for don't happen or the people we trusted, in our minds have let us down. But these are the very moments when we listen carefully enough that we can hear our loved ones singing “Rock of ages.” Then we will know that Jesus is our rock in a weary land.

PRAYER: Help us on our desert journeys to examine our lives and to put our belief into practice, that we can be faithful and worthy servants who will honour you before all people ...
